Government Publications

provide a unique contribution to the annual literature of the country. In recent years their scope has been steadily increasing and a wide range of publications on a great variety of subjects is now available.

The authoritative nature of Government Publications stamps them as documents of first importance, and in many subjects they constitute a library of up-to-date volumes of a kind unobtainable from any other source.

The Sales offices of H.M. Stationery Office, the addresses of which are given below, will advise inquirers regarding the publications available on particular subjects.
